Kids Rule! at Belsay Hall Saturday 25th May – Sunday 2nd June

- 11am Fairy Interesting: The Victorians were very clever people, inventive and studious. They wouldn't believe in fairies, would they? We take a look at Victorian attitudes to our little winged friends.
- 12pm Fairy Dance: Lots of Fairy traditions involve a fairy dance and the Victorians loved dancing! Join us to explore the music and dances the Victorians associated with fairies.
- 1pm That's Not Fairy Nice! Fairytales have changed a lot over the years. Come explore how folklore has developed and how fairies used to be feared by common folk, and not without reason!
- 2.00pm Fairy Interesting: The Victorians were very clever people, inventive and studious. They wouldn't believe in fairies, would they? We take a look at Victorian attitudes to our little winged friends.
