Medieval Season at Eltham Palace

Saturday 20 July to Friday 26 July

Times 10am – 5pm

Join us at Eltham Palace during the summer holidays to learn what life was like in medieval times. From sword school to medieval archaeology, and rulers to peasants, there will be different activities each week for children to take part in.

This Week:

It's your chance to learn all about Robin Hood and Richard III with bZents Theatre Co!

Heritage Games: Come and try some traditional games, stilt walking, diabolo, hoop and stick, devil sticks and much more. Rosie and Walter will be on hand with expert tuition.

10.45am, 12.30pm, 2.30pm and 4.00pm

Dastardly Dick or Righteous Richard? Was King Richard III a hero or a villain? A light-hearted interactive show explores the life of this controversial king.

11.30am and 3.15pm

Robin Hood's Greatest Adventure: Outlaws Wanted! Robin Hood and his Merry Men save the children of Nottingham from the evil clutches of the Sheriff in this fun interactive performance.

1.30pm

Children must be always accompanied by an adult
